The Deputy Commissioner.
Kolar District.

Sir,

The villagers of Hudukula, Bowringpet Taluk, presented a petition to the President, Taluk Board, Bowringpet requesting that a Santhe may be established in the -- village. Thereupon the subject was considered by the Taluk Board and they recommended the holding of a weekly Santhe in the village every Wednesday. The President in his Ittilla No. 528 dated 29.12.1923 reports that the weekly market affords convenience to the residents in and around the village.

2. The District Board on considering the question in their meeting held on the 24th March 1924 approved of the proposal to have a Santhe but selected Tuesday as being more suitable. Copy of their resolution is enclosed for the information of Government.

3. With a view to find out whether Tuesday is suitable to the villagers, the President, Taluk Board was requested to furnish his views. He recommends, in his report No.899 dated 15.4.1924 that Tuesday may be fixed. The Mutchalika, obtained by the residents of Hudukula, agreeing to the proposed change Viz., fixing Tuesday is also appended for favour of perusal.

Proceedings of the Kolar District Board Meeting held on the 24th March 1924.
